1) When IP camera/Network video server detect: Video lost, motion detection, external input, it will send alarm to email

If you request the camera/Network video server sending alarm to email anytime when alarm was triggered, no matter your software "ImageclientClient" works or no

Please set the email setting here

ImageWorldClient—optional--Remote server setting

Then click "Mail parm"

Our Alarm Email only supply SMTP format

Email Server Address is request

Email Server Port   is request

Login Username is request

Login Password is request

Or you can set the email setting on web browser

Web browser--settings--Alarm Parameters--Email Alarm Settings

2) If you request sending alarm to email base on your software—ImageWorldClient , if it working, send alarm ,If doesn't work, stop sending
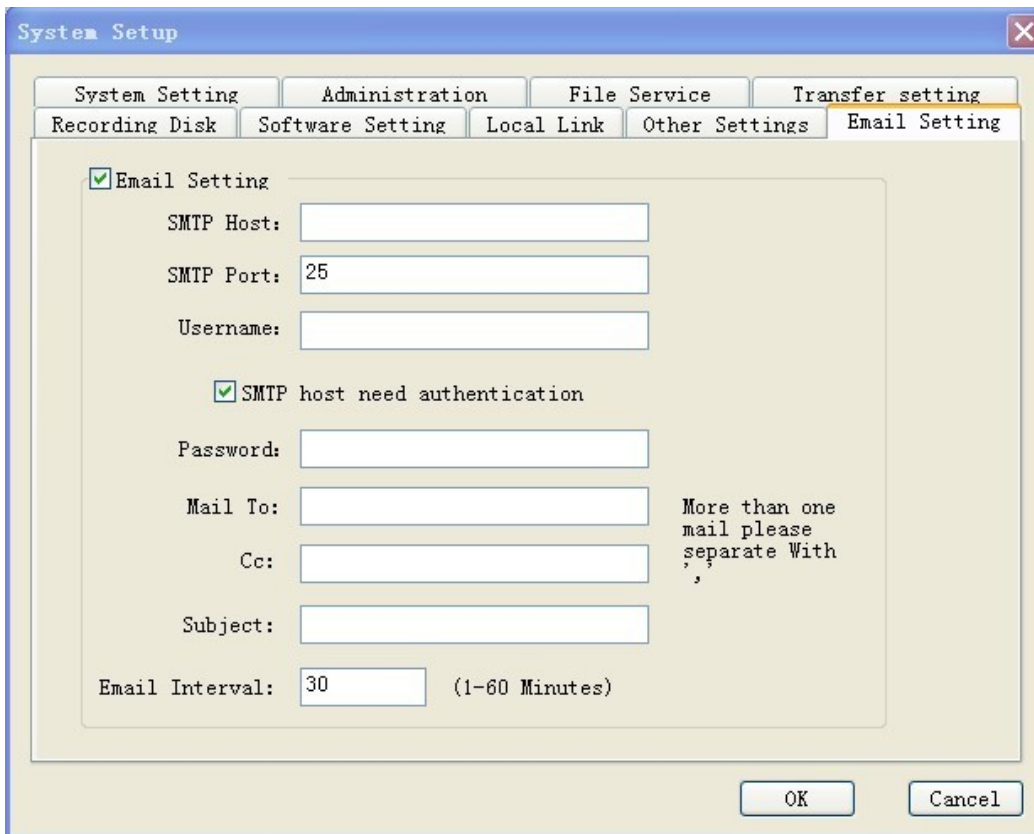

Please set it here

Email Settings

ImageworldClient—Option—system setup

Then Click "Email Setting", you will see this picture

SMTP Host: Email Server Address

SMTP Port: 25 (Because our Email alarm only support SMTP format, the SMTP Server port is 25) username: login name (Email)

password: login password

Email to: receiver

Email interval: Send alarm picture   interval (1~60min)

Alarm type setting

Right button click video

Click "Camera parm", then click "alarm email", you will see

Finish these setting, the alarm will send to your email